

As someone with a degree in Telecommunications, I am writing to you regarding possible repeal of the DO NOT CALL rules against certain telemarketers in the State of Indiana. It has definitely made my home life better by not getting 10-15 annoying and harassing telemarketing calls per week. As a writer, I need to keep my line and voice mail open for clients. I would really think about your decision.